40 Days for Life – Ended, but You can still come and Pray

This year 40 Days for Life started "40 Days for Life 365" which is a prayer presence at the abortion facility 365 days a year. According to Catherine in Aurora, Illinois, A father who stopped by to thank 40DFL365 vigil participants for saving his wife and unborn child from abortion. The father stated, "A week ago, we were thinking about coming here and getting an abortion, then we saw how many people out here actually care...I feel like God put you guys in front of us."

Pro-Life Mississippi has known for years that the presence of people praying helps save lives. Please join us in prayer all year and help save lives.

Miss. gov. signs law to help end discrimination against babies with Down syndrome, assist parents

Below is just part of the article posted on Saturday, March 20, 2021 By Ryan Foley, Christian Post Reporter on CP POLITICS website.

The pro-life group Susan B. Anthony List is celebrating the governor's decision to sign the Down Syndrome Information Act, also known as "Hudson's Law," Thursday. The law was named in honor of Hudson Hartman, a 3-year-old Mississippi resident who has Down syndrome. Hartman and his mother worked hard last summer to ensure the passage of the Life Equality Act, which bans abortions on the basis of race, sex, disability or genetic makeup.
